Are we chatting about this and determining if Prosecutions wants to take a position on this issue - or just let the accused deal with it alone.

October 19, 2007.

The Honourable Chief Judge Raymond E. Wyant,
The Provincial Court of Manitoba,
5th Floor, 408 York Avenue,
WINNIPEG, Manitoba,
R3C 0P9.

Your Honour:

RE: Derek HARVEY-MORDEN-ZENK.

I have received your fax dated October 19th, 2007, at 3:34 p.m., regarding the above captioned individual. I was unaware that the Court had been approached by CJOB wishing to broadcast your decision on October 29th, 2007, by live feed. I was also unaware that you had approved the request of this media agency. It is my respectful submission that you allow counsel to appear before you to make submissions on the appropriateness of this process.

Unfortunately, I will be in Brandon on a Queen's Bench trial until Friday, October 26th, 2007. I would, however, like the opportunity to put my position on the record on October 26th, 2007, or at a time prior to your reasons for judgment on this matter.

Yours truly,

GINDIN, WOLSON, SIMMONDS, ROITENBERG
