In addition to the terms and conditions of your Conditional Sentence Order, you should know about the following:

YOUR SUPERVISOR

You will be assigned a supervisor who will be responsible for supervising your Conditional Sentence. To contact your supervisor, call the phone number shown on the form that the Court will give you.

TO MAKE CHANGES TO THE ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS

You, your supervisor, or the prosecutor, may apply in writing to ask for a change or changes to the additional conditions of this Order. Use an application form available from your supervisor or any Court. The form is called A Proposal to Change a Conditional Sentence Order. You may consult a lawyer.

IF YOUR SUPERVISOR MAKES THE REQUEST FOR CHANGES, you will be given a copy of the written request. If you wish to be heard by the Court, you will have seven (7) days from the time you receive the request to notify the Court that you want a hearing.

A hearing may also be held if the prosecutor asks for a hearing or if the Court orders a hearing. If a hearing is requested or ordered, it will be held within thirty (30) days from the time the Court received the written request for changes.

If no hearing is held, the changes proposed by your supervisor will take effect fourteen (14) days after the Court received the written request for changes. You will be notified by your supervisor.

IF YOU MAKE THE REQUEST FOR CHANGES, you must do so by writing to the Court. You may ask your Supervisor or any Court for a form called Proposal to Change a Conditional Sentence Order. You must clearly state the changes you are asking the Court to make. A hearing will be held by the Court within thirty (30) days from the time the Court received the written request for changes. The Court will notify the supervisor and the prosecutor of the hearing.

IF THE PROSECUTOR MAKES THE REQUEST FOR CHANGES, you will be given a copy of the written request. A hearing will be held by the Court within thirty (30) days from the time the Court received the written request for changes.

At the hearing, the Court may approve or refuse to approve the request for changes. The Court may also decide to make other changes to the additional conditions that the Court finds appropriate.

IF YOU BREACH A CONDITION OF THIS ORDER

If you, breach any condition of this Order, you may be brought back to Court. Within thirty (30) days of the issue of the Warrant or Summons, or as soon as is practicable, the Court will hear an allegation that you have breached a condition of this Order. The allegation may be heard by a Court in the place where the breach is alleged to have been committed, or by a Court in the place where you are found.

If you are found outside Manitoba, proceedings may be started in a Court in that Province or Territory, with the consent of the Attorney General.

The allegation that you, have breached a condition of this Order will be supported by a written report prepared by your supervisor. Where appropriate, the report will include signed statements of witnesses. If the report is intended to be used as evidence in Court, you will be notified and given a copy of the report. If you want to cross-examine your supervisor or any witness whose signed statement is in the report, you may ask the Court for leave to do so.

The Court must be satisfied on a balance of probabilities that you have breached a condition of this Order without a reasonable excuse. The onus is on you, to satisfy the Court that there is a reasonable excuse.

WARNING: If the Court is satisfied that you have breached a condition of this Order without a reasonable excuse, it may do any of the following:

- (a) the Court may end this Conditional Sentence Order and send you to jail until your sentence expires;
- (b) the Court may suspend this Conditional Sentence Order and send you to jail for a portion of the unexpired term of your sentence. The Conditional Sentence Order will resume upon your release, with or without changes to the additional conditions;
- (c) the Court may make changes to the additional conditions of this Order;
- (d) the Court may take no action.

I understand this Order and/or I have been given a chance to have someone explain the Order to me. A copy of the Order has been given to me.
